REASONS WHY PRICES ARE LOW HERE...

In the first place it was a good move—coming to First street. This store was built just as experienced taught us a complete house, convenient and comfortable. It is a large and expensivly large or small competitor-taking into full consideration the amount of space occupied and the amount of business done. Economy in buying also plays a large part in making low prices. The trade is large enough to enable us to buy direct from manufacturers in full cases and carload to save expenses.

These are some of the reasons why most people after looking over the field and making comparisons, come here to buy. There are also some of the reasons why this business has grown a small beginning to one of the largest in the state of Minnesota.

IF YOU ARE NOT A CUSTOMER HERE AT WILL TRY AND BECOME ONE.

WORK ON 500 LOCKS.

New Gates Being Built and Other Improvements Under Way.

St. Paul, Jan. 3.—Extensive improvements are now being made to St. Mary's Falls canal and locks. These changes will call for the expenditure of many thousand dollars. Other improvements are contemplated, and the total will be no less than the amount.

The work of greatest magnitude now under way is the construction of a new set of gates for the east end of the New Canal. The old gates having been erected originally, one of the gates—the north one—is to be removed and the other one will be served likewise as soon as possible. The new gates will be built on the same site, and will be put in place in the spring. Other improvements on the New Canal will consist of the portion of the waterway which makes repairs to engines, etc.

On the New Canal the turbines are to be replaced by additional holes put into the floor of the lock, and the angle iron required to support the gates will be taken out of the steel deck. The parents were given the option by Judge Walker, who is in charge of the work, to have the gate set in the reform school. They were led to the hall by the turnkey, and given twenty-five lashes for two blocks.

The Rebels of China Still Doing Much Damage.

London, Jan. 3.—According to a dispatch from Shanghai, the rebels of the upper Yang-tse Kiang region. The disturbances are increasing in the provinces of Szechuan, Hunan and Hupeh, and the British government has asserted that it is curtailed the authority of the vice-regions, especially in Yang-tse and Hankow districts.

A body of Chinese troops was sent to aid the rebels, but they are said to have fled before the enemy. The rebels have been reinforced by three gunboats and a hundred men.

But Not More Than Is Necessary in Cooking the Beef.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Commissary Gen. Egan has been steadily prosecuting the inquiry into the methods followed by the interstate packing houses of putting up the meats supplied to the army during the war. Last week he made public a formal statement from the Armour company, and today he gave out the following letters addressed to Lieut. Col. O. M. Smith, purchasing commissary at Chicago, which came from all save one of the firms which supplied the army meat, either refrigerated or canned:

"Chicago, Dec. 28.—Replying to your letter of the 27th inst. we wish to state that we do not put up any meat before it is fit for use, and answer your interrogations with regard to canned meat."

"We are butchers and shippers of refrigerated beef, and in all of our experience have never used any chemicals whatsoever with refrigerated beef."

"We have made shipments of refrigerated beef to Santiago, Cuba and Porto Rico, and have supplied the United States army during the months of December in the following places: Atlanta, Ala.; Huntsville, Ala.; Knoxville, Tenn.; Savannah, Ga.; Augusta, Ga.; Columbia, S. C.; Somerville, Tenn.; Columbus, Ga.; and Birmingham, Ala."

"Beef shipped to Santiago, Cuba and Porto Rico and to various United States camps has been packed in exactly the same manner that is used to pack our various branch houses at different cities and towns in the United States and England, with which anyone can become familiar, and the process is simple, honest and straightforward."

ANOTHER VICTIM

Henry C. Barnet of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club
Killed By Poison.

CALLED DIPHTHERIA

His Body Was Exhumed and Traces of the Poison
Were Found.

New York, Jan. 3.—The Herald says: There is strong likelihood that the fact may soon be established that Henry C. Barnet, who died at the Knickerbocker Athletic club on Nov. 10, ostensibly from diphtheria, was murdered by poison as was Mrs. Adams, and that the same poison was used to take his life as was utilized in the case of the woman. Cyanide of mercury was administered in each case. The body of Barnet has been exhumed and it is said that sufficient evidence has been gathered to prove that the body contains traces of the poison named.

The death is said to be little doubt that the person who caused the death of Mrs. Adams is also responsible for the death of Barnet, with this difference, that while he did not intend to kill Mrs. Adams, but, on the birth of her son, he was deliberately planned the death of Barnet.

Barnet's death was surrounded with several very suspicious circumstances. He had been ill for some time, for several days previous to Oct. 29, owing to a disordered condition of the stomach and a cold. On the date mentioned there came into his possession a small jar of a powder, which is usually used to remedy headaches. Whether the bottle was bought by Barnet or whether it came to him at the Knickerbocker Athletic club is not known, but it is not known at this time, but it has been stated he received it through the mail.

He took a dose of the powder and at once became exceedingly ill. Dr. Phillips, who has an office immediately across the street from the club where Barnet was staying, was hastily and prescribed for the sick man. Late in the day his regular physician called to see him and attended him from that time until his death on Nov. 10.

The death certificate stated death was due to diphtheria. During the ten days of Barnet's illness the greatest precautions were taken to conceal his illness, surrounding his case quiet. When his brother Edmund called to see him he merely said that he had taken a "headache powder," and adding that it had been given him previously. He attributed this to having taken an over-dose. He seemed to recover from the effects of the powder in a day or two and his symptoms were gone. The mind of Edmund that his brother's death was not the result of diphtheria.

SUCCEEDS DR. ABBOTT.

Rev. Dr. Hillis, of Chicago, Will Go to Brooklyn.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—News was received here last night that Dr. Hillis, pastor of the Central church in this city, is to call to the pulpit of the famous Plymouth church of Brooklyn as the successor of Dr. Lyman Abbott.

The formal call will be extended to Dr. Hillis after the meeting of the vestry committee, which will be held today. This was made a certainty on the return to Brooklyn from Chicago of members of the committee which has been sent to Dr. Abbott.

As soon as Dr. Hillis' acceptance of the call reaches Brooklyn it will be ratified, and when the present pastor steps down Dr. Hillis will lead the flock to which he has won his home and take up his new place in the sanctuary hallowed by memories of two of the greatest clergymen of the century—Henry Ward Beecher and Lyman Abbott.

Dr. Hillis is a native of Iowa and is 40 years old. He was educated at Grinnell College, at Lake Forest University, at Alcorn's Seminary. For three years after leaving his theological studies he was pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Peoria. From 1890 to 1893 he preached from the pulpit of the First church in Evanston. In December, 1893, he succeeded Professor S. C. Central church. Dr. Hillis, like his predecessor of Plymouth and Central churches, is a writer. Four books have been published: "Forethought of Immortality," "How the Inner Light Failed," "A Man's Value to Society," "The Investment of Influence."

HORRIBLE CRIMES IN COREA.

Missionaries Tortured to Make Them Confess to False Charges.

London, Jan. 3.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "The respondent of the Novos Yuzma at Sevastopol, the Korean capital, was terribly injured by the Russian bandits and their agents, who are members of the Russian Guards and drift instructors who have wreaked vengeance upon the Christians in Corea. The Korean dragoon of the Russian embassy, the official who safeguarded the persons of the Corean Christians, and the Russian mission house, his wife and family were recently forced to make them confess to a false charge of poisoning the emperor, who are among the highest officers. The dragoon was brutally executed, and the other Christians were treated in a savage and disgusting manner. All this, the world says, occurred in a manner blessed with American and other Christian missionaries and where American officials occupy influential posts in the Corean government."

COMMANDED TO DIE.

Peculiar Circumstances Attending the Suicide of Mrs. Marx-Aveling.

London, Jan. 3.—Some remarkable facts have developed regarding the suicide of Mrs. Marx-Aveling last March. It appears that she became estranged from her husband, the English Socialist leader, with whom she had lived for a number of years, had secretly married a young lady, and informed that she was tired of her, wherein Aveling said the best thing he could do was to commit suicide. Dr. Aveling, it further appears, allowed her to send to a doctor for advice and, while she drank it, the public prosecutor would have taken action in the matter, but Aveling, as a sudden death on Aug. 1, 1893.

Mr. Edward Marx-Aveling, a British Socialist leader, Earl Marx, the committed suicide, according to the London dispatch, in March last, though news was

On holidays in England two parties of men or boys are free to hold opposite ends of a rope, and pull it, as a test of the strength of the two parties. They call it "tug of war" with death for an antagonist.

Many a hardworking man is worn out in each day's toil, is pulling a "tug of war" with death for an antagonist.

They fail to take proper care of their health, and indulgence or a slight bilious attack they "wear it out." After a while these disorders wear out the nerves of man or woman, and the result is consumption, rheumatism, some blood or skin disease. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser tells all about these diseases. It is free to all. Dr. Pierce's Great Medical Discovery can cure all that maladies named. RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.

More than 3000 miles of new railroad were built in the United States during the year 1898, nearly double the amount of railroad building in 1897 and greater than the next mileage of any previous year since 1895, when 472 miles were built.

The Railway Age says that had it not been for the almost unprecedented bad weather of the fall and winter, which seriously retarded work in many localities, it would be able to report a considerable excess of 3000 miles. As it is, compilations based on the official returns show that not less than 3018 miles have been constructed during last year on 222 lines in forty-five states and territories. Many miles of logging road have been built this year which are not included in the total of 3018 miles, for the reason that they are merely for temporary use and will be abandoned as soon as the timber which they have been built to reach is exhausted. On the other hand, there are included some roads which have been built primarily for logging purposes, but which are of a permanent nature, and which will do a regular freight and passenger business eventually, if not at present. Some of these are in the neighborhood of Duluth.

There are but five states in the Union that built no road during the year, namely: New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Kansas and Nevada.

Three states—Indiana, New Jersey and Vermont—built but two miles each, while Nebraska added less than one mile on a terminal line at Omaha. Thirteen states built more than 100 miles each, Minnesota heading the list with 250 miles, of which 145 miles were built by the Great Northern. The other twelve states, with their mileage, are: Texas, 183 miles; New Mexico, 162 miles; Louisiana, 158 miles; Arkansas, 157 miles; Alabama, 154 miles; Oklahoma territory, 147 miles; Maine, 124 miles; North Carolina, 122 miles; Missouri, 120 miles; California, 118 miles; Georgia, 112 miles; and Pennsylvania, 105 miles. These thirteen states built over 1000 miles of road, and if we include the 3018 miles just mentioned, it will be seen that nearly one-third of the new mileage of the country has been constructed in fourteen states.

While the new work has been distributed throughout the entire country, the greatest activity has been in the South and Southwest, where fifteen states have built nearly one-half of the total mileage, or 1478 miles, while nine Pacific coast states have added 430 miles, and the middle Northern states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin, 532 miles. Aside from the Washington County railroad in Maine, which is 119 miles long, there has been little new work in New England, and although Pennsylvania has built 162 miles, there have been no important roads constructed in that state, the longest individual line being but ten miles in length.

The Railway Age says: "In addition to the above, there are several hundred miles of road on which tracklaying is now in progress or is just beginning, and there are many hundred miles more graded on which track will not be laid until next spring. Altogether the coming year gives every promise of being one of far greater activity in the matter of railway construction than the year just closing. There are many important lines projected in different sections of the country, and the indications point to a good deal of building by transcontinental roads in the way of cut-offs and branch lines to develop new territory, most of which is in the extreme Northwest, where there has been little new mileage added in the last few years. The outlook has not been better for ten years past."

THE DEAD OF 1898.

The names of several of the most noted and really great men of the earth are recorded in the death list of the year that just closed.

The two most conspicuous in the list are William E. Gladstone, the aged old man of England, greatest commander of the present generation, and Prince Otto von Bismarck, the iron chancellor of Germany.

Both will have a permanent place in the world's history. Their fame as statesmen rests secure for all time to come.

The United States has also lost some of the best known public men on this side of the Atlantic—none it is true that will be ranked with Gladstone and Bismarck. At the head of the list stands the name of Thomas F. Bayard, ex-senator, ex-secretary of state and ex-ambassador to England. Mr. Bayard was a man of great ability. The patriarch of the Senate, the aged old man of England, greatest commander of the present generation, and Prince Otto von Bismarck, the iron chancellor of Germany.

Both will have a permanent place in the world's history. Their fame as statesmen rests secure for all time to come.

Archbishop of Armagh, primate of Ireland, has seen fit to protest against the dismemberment agitation and the celebration of peace Sunday in his diocese. While he regretted the horrors of war, he said that memory of his father's last words—"Well, well, my child, I suppose that because my memory is failing a little a year ago."

There has been a good deal of laborious effort to show that Thomas Jefferson was an expansionist, or imperialist of the sort that would annex the Philippine Islands annexed to the United States.

He said that the Cuban question was advanced one word, written or spoken, by Thomas Jefferson showing him to be even remotely in favor of a policy that would attack islands in the other side of the globe to this country.

For Present Trouble.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Gen. Otis, commanding at Manila, has called the war department that in his opinion Gen. Miller has the situation well in hand at Manila, and that he fully understands the purpose of the president not to crow his laurels unduly. It is highly desirable that the hostile collision between the American forces and the insurgents be averted at all hazards, if possible, and that the Spaniards be compelled to make up the knowledge of the American intentions respecting the Philippines.

Admiral Dewey was heard from by cable by the navy department today and made no reference to the political situation in the islands. He reported that the Spanish officers had been sent to a naval hospital at Cavite, and asked authority from the department to establish it at once.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Secretary Alger has made public a partial list of regiments and companies of volunteers which, as a result of the findings of the trials prior to the Treaty, it has been decided to muster out of the service. The list includes twelve full regiments and two independent companies and three heavy batteries of artillery, approximating 16,000 men, mostly volunteers. The names are as follows:

In Alabama—Sixty-ninth New York; Third Florida, both at Huntsville; Third Tennessee, at Atlanta; and in Georgia—Companies A and B, Indiana colored infantry, at Chickamauga; Third North Carolina and Sixth Virginia, at Macon; Ninth North Carolina and Fifteenth Pennsylvania, at Athens.

In South Carolina—South Carolina heavy battery, at Sullivan's Island; Fourth Missouri, at Greencastle; Second Tennessee, at Columbia; Ninth Ohio, at Summerville.

In Texas—Third Texas, at Fort Clark; In California—Eighty-fourth, at Camp Meade, barracks, heavy batteries B and C, California artillery.

Cincinnati, Jan. 4.—Judge Smith of the common pleas court, upon application of the Bell Pottinger Company, of which he is a director, issued a temporary restraining order against eighteen pottery companies in the state to prevent them from organizing a trust, contrary to the statutes. vision is bringing large sums of money into the treasury annually. It can and should be extended to foreign corporations doing business in this state. This would only be a matter of private interest. The license fee should be uniform with that imposed on our domestic corporations, or on the capitalization of the entire capital stock of the foreign corporation, or on that portion of the capital engaged in business in this state, or on the capital in New York, which is valid and may be sanctioned by the courts of last resort, both state and federal. Much of the time of our courts, especially in the lower division, is occupied by litigation brought by foreign corporations, who in the past have contributed nothing to the expense of government. The license fee that is collected upon the issuance of a domestic charter, would be payable only once.

In addition to this, many of our sister states have corporation annual franchise tax laws in operation. Domestic corporations and foreign corporations doing business in the state are all subject to it, and such exceed in amount the taxes that have chosen to make. This, it seems to me, is one of the most available as well as legitimate sources that you can turn to for revenue without infringing upon any other source. The tax itself, is just a one tenth on economic grounds and from the standpoint of public policy. The corporation permits the union of several owners in a way peculiar to that form of organization. It gives the mass a solidarity and efficiency that can never be attained in a partnership. There is a well recognized fact that there is an economical advantage in the harmonious co-operation of numbers over individual working together on a building, or in a shop, can accomplish more in a shorter time. The cumulative effect of capital is even greater. To the old adage that "in union there is strength," might well be added "and greater efficiency." It is applied to time or production. The business of the corporation is not interrupted by the vicissitudes of individual idleness. The tax places the owners of limited capital to participate in undertakings that would be beyond his reach but for aid. If business reverses befall the corporation, the corporation holds on to its liability to tax to the same extent as which it originated. The capital as such would be liable to taxation in whatever form. The state conferring these special powers and privileges, and the franchise, as it is given, to control there a corporation of great value to its members, and is considered as property separate and distinct from the property which it controls. The capital as such would be liable to taxation in whatever form. This principle cannot be better expressed than in the words of the Supreme Court of the United States (143 U. S. 365). The court says: "The right and privilege, and the franchise, as it is given, to control there a corporation of great value to its members, and is considered as property separate and distinct from the property which it controls. ## THE KNIFE APPLIED

Herald Goes After Its Competitors and Startles Them on County Printing.

PROFIT TO THE WIND

Work Will Be Done at a Loss But the War Is on.

The county printing was the subject of a free-for-all slashing contest yesterday when the bids were opened, and as it turned out, The Herald's pruning knife was the longest. It was used ruthlessly, with entire disregard to profits, and while profits were cut entirely out of existence The Herald's bid was the lowest. Though The Herald will undoubtedly lose money on its contract, it was after the county printing, and if had been necessary to cut deeper in order to get it the knife would have been drawn. The Herald bid was 2 cents per description for the tax list, two publications, headings from the next lowest bid, 3.9 cents per description, was made by the Eveleth Star, while the News Tribune bid 6 cents per description.

The bids were correspondingly low on the other printing. On the financial statement, The Herald's bid was also the lowest, 3.12 cents per page. The next bid was that of the Eveleth Star, 25 cents per folio for the first insertion and 15 cents for each subsequent insertion. The Eveleth Star's bid was 1 cent higher per folio than the lowest bid. The Herald's bid was 10 cents per folio and the Eveleth Star's 9 cents per folio. The Eveleth Star, while it was not necessary to cut deeper to the outcome on claims and headings to report this morning, when action was taken to be taken on the matter, the bids were as follows:

Duluth Star County board proceedings, 25 cents a folio; financial statement, 25 cents a folio for the first insertion and 15 cents for each subsequent insertion; Eveleth Star, 25 cents per folio for the first insertion and 10 cents for each subsequent insertion; financial statement, 25 cents for the first insertion and 15 cents for each subsequent insertion, agreeing to furnish 150 pamphlets of the statement free; delinquent tax list, 3-9 cents a description for two parts.

In the eighth F. E. Bradley is looked upon as the most promising fusion candidate, although it is conceded that Charles Olson may have a strong following.

In the Sixth, fusion sentiment is setting strongly toward Frank Schaefer, and it is thought that he will be the silver candidate. The Fusion group, however, stated yesterday by excellent authority that Dr. Culkin will be the fusion candidate in the First.

Bonded Wheat Business Increases Customs House Work.

The customs office is nearly swamped by the bonded wheat business. An average of twenty cars a day is going out of here, and this makes an endless amount of clerical work, because of the great volume of red tape which surrounds this kind of work. Two weeks ago, the bonded wheat business, which is the largest of that country, was in a bind—intricate affairs—have to be kept up, and the general work done. If the rush keeps up to the point where it will be forced to go to a department store or a clerk, it will be some reluctance to granting this, because while the bonded wheat shipments make a great deal of work, bringing in a very small revenue to the department.

DR. MILNE ACCEPTS.

He Decides to Become Pastor of Pilgrim Congregational Church.

A telegram was received last evening from Rev. Alexander Milne of Columbus, Ohio, accepting a call to the pastorate of Pilgrim Congregational Church, Duluth. The announcement is a welcome one to the members of the congregation, for they have counted much on Dr. Milne's acceptance at this time. Dr. Milne does not know whether his answer would be favorable. Dr. Milne is said to be an energetic worker, and during his pastorate in Wichita, Kansas, as told in the following letter:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have served for over two years with falling enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped.

"I am now gaining strength and flesh, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed, suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to do.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

MAKING A RICH HAUL.

Train Robbers Succeed In Looting Two Through Express Safes.

Mansfield, Mo., Jan. 4.—The ninth and successful attempt at train robbery on the lines of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis route occurred last night at 8:35 near Macomb, a small station 12 miles east of the point of the hold-up being in the state of Illinois. The robbers got aboard the west-bound train at around 7:30, stopped it and cut a hole in the comb, paying his fare to the locomotive and compelling the train to stop there.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ALLOWANCE.

Commissioners and Aldermen to Discuss the Matter Tomorrow.

The fire department committee of the council and the fire commissioners and chief blues are to meet Friday afternoon to discuss the fire department appropriation and the amount to be appropriated therefrom. Under the resolution of the council providing that the appropriation shall be equally apportioned for each month of the year, it will, it is claimed, be necessary to appropriate $1,000 a month to keep within the limit in the winter months on account of the heavy fuel bills. The apportionment committee ranged according to the needs of the several departments, the amount remaining to be paid out to the chief blues. It is said, under the plan desired by the commissioners and the chief, the appropriation will be apportioned so as to be reduced and that for the winter months correspondingly increased.

In case of any event, it is said, to dispense with one man unless an additional appropriation to cover his salary can be procured.

NEW FACES ARE SEEN

Changes in the Different County Offices Went Into Effect Today.

THE NEW OFFICERS

Some of the Changes Made —Deputy West's Fine Record.

There were quite a number of new faces in the court house this morning. In the clerk's office George Chester and his new force took hold yesterday afternoon, and the morning things were running smoothly. A. J. Taylor was acting as chief deputy in place of W. J. West, who was chief deputy until John Owens. Mr. West has not only been a courteous and popular official, reflecting credit upon his popular chief, but he has introduced some methods into the clerk's office that savor of genius along the lines of bookkeeping. Some of his original ideas have simplified the work vastly and the work much improved. At present Mr. West will be the only one to leave the office. Miss Moody and Miss Wedmark will continue in their present positions, and D. S. Blanchard will be the second deputy.

In the office of the register of deeds R.S. Munger took hold this morning, accompanied by August Hanger, his chief deputy, and H. H. Hayes. S. Pierce, who has been in the office a long time, will continue there for a few months at least. G. L. Wedan and Anna Mather will also remain for a time.

In the office of the judge of probate, where Frank A. Ingalls, Mrs. Averill Ayer, assistant part of the time by Mrs. S. Pierce, who has been in the office a long time, will continue there for a few months at least. G. L. Wedan and Anna Mather will also remain for a time.

CHARGE IS ENTERED.

John Polom Is Accused of Having Stolen Alfred Johnson's Cow.

John Polom was arrested last evening by Detective Troyer on suspicion of being the man who stole a cow yesterday morning from a dairy on the Hermonia road conducted by Alfred Johnson. The clue that led to the arrest was given by Mr. Downie, a live stock dealer at 1831 West First street, who reported that he had bought a cow that he thought might be the one that had been stolen.

An investigation was made and it was ascertained that the cow was the one stolen from Mr. Johnson's place. Mr. Downie said that when he sold him the cow called on him Monday night and offered to sell him a cow, and Mr. Downie agreed to buy it for $2 if it answered the description the man gave.

The next morning the man appeared with a cow that was not such a one as had been described, and Mr. Downie refused to buy it. The man explained his failure to bring the cow he had agreed to by stating that his wife had objected. He said that he had the money to buy it for his other cattle and offered the animal for $15, and Mr. Downie finally took it.

Polom was picked up at the West End police station. It was learned that he had been in town since May 1st, and the day morning he had $15. Mr. Downie visited headquarters last night and said that Polom looked like the man who had sold the cow. A suit of clothes that was found in Polom's room, at 1224 West Second street, was identified by Mr. Downie and was taken by the man who took the cow to the place.

A charge of grand larceny in the first degree was entered against Polom, and his hearing was set for Jan. 7, at 9:30 a.m. Bail was fixed at $500, in default of which he was committed to jail.

FROM THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, Jan. 4.—(Special to The Herald.)—Colonel J. L. Greatsinger and Capt. A. Wolvin, of Duluth, arrived in Washington this morning. They called on Judge Morris immediately upon their arrival, and after an interview with him, all three went to the war department. Not knowing what our visitors would say what they are here for, but the fact that they had number of their friends with them led to the supposition that they were to get an approval of the secretary of war for the erection of a bridge across one of the navigable streams in Minnesota. It is understood that their visit was in connection with government dredging at Texas City, Tex., in which both Greatsinger and Wolvin are believed to have been instrumental. They will go to New York tomorrow.

TRADE IN ENGLAND

American Imports to That Country Are Constantly Increasing.

CANADA COMPETES

In Cheese and Other Products She Downs the United States.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Consul Boyle, in a report on the trade of Liverpool with the United States, says that the past year has been the best one in the history for trade in American products in that district, and there is every reason to believe that it will continue to grow. There has been a very material decline, however, in trade generally at Liverpool during recent years. The value of the total imports in 1897 was $7,821,235 less than in 1898. There has also been a very material falling off in total exports to all countries. Consul Boyle says in part:

"There are two very remarkable facts in connection with this great falling off in the trade of Liverpool. First, that, contrary to general opinion, falling off in exportation has been not only with the United States but with the world at large and, as far as imports are concerned, that from the United States have been continually increasing; second, this decrease of trade is in spite of an increase in the tonnage of vessels trading and in the volume of export. Notwithstanding the decline in imports, the gross amount of customs revenue collected is continually increasing."

"While the figures covering the imports at Liverpool from the United States are not the largest due to the many American goods, both agricultural and manufactured, came into Liverpool during 1897 than in any other year, and even the exports to the United States show a marked increase over 1896. Canadian competition with the United States in its market for wheat, corn and provisions has been steadily increasing during the last year and threatens to be keener in the future.

"The most remarkable phase of the trade in American beef is that the increase in the importation of chilled meat. Until recently it had been considered that the meat of American cattle was not equal to the meat of English cattle, but it has now become apparent that chilled meat, though not superior to the meat of American cattle, is increasing enormously, and is a powerful competitor. In the course of a few years it will almost entirely take the place of American meat brought here by hoof."

"American mutton is often sold as English; indeed, the choice cuts of American beef are preferred by many of the large butchers to the best English meat. English cattle are deprecating in value and quality, one reason being that animals are not being slaughtered at 2 years old, instead of 3 years formerly.

"The meat of American cattle is now doubtless a great change in regard to meat buyers and sellers claim that the American cattle are not equal to the meat of English cattle slaughtered at 2 years old, instead of 3 years formerly.

"American mutton is not making headway, largely because it is fattened too much."

"There is a good demand for American bacon and hams, and provided they come mild, and not fat, there is a very good prospect of increasing sales; they should not be smoked."

"The fact that American cheese in this market is being displaced by Canadian is due to the same cause, apparently. An inquiry from Canada shows I am told that this is principally owing to the method of manufacture, which is spoken of here as being radically wrong, and that the American can factory men generally wish to compete for the English trade, the sooner they see about altering the style of cheese the better."

"The outlook for the apple trade here is good, as the crop is short, shorter even than was anticipated a month ago."

"Experiment shipments of tomatoes have been made to this market from the United States, but so far have proved a failure."

"The California canned fruit still hold the market here in this line, and the sales are increasing. Complaints are made concerning the taste of the fruits there is a metallic taste experienced from the tin by those who eat them. A trial has been made of enameling the inside of the tins, but it was not successful."

"The iron and steel trade has been particularly good during the past year, especially in machinery."

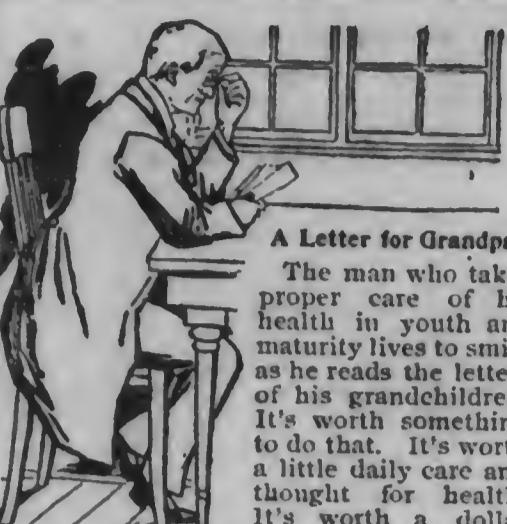

"The sales of American bicycles has increased enormously in this country during the past year. An American built bicycle grade could, until recently, be bought for 25¢ more than an English bicycle of the same grade. So keen has the competition become that in the last month or two there has been a great jumble in the price of English bicycles."

A SKATERS' CONFERENCE.

THAT ALLEGED BAD BEEF.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Representative Lewis of Washington, yesterday introduced a resolution in the House for an inquiry, by any house committee appointed to investigate the conduct of the war, into the beef contracts made by the government, while the beef was in all cases wholesome and when the facts disclosed should or should not demand the submission of the subject to the Senate. The resolution was referred to an appropriate grand jury of the United States to inquire into and present such indictment or present

IS GREATLY NEEDED

A bill under which Duluth may fund its floating debt has been prepared by Attorney S. T. Harrison, assisted by City Attorney Richards, and will probably be submitted to the council Monday evening. It was drafted in pursuance of the resolution adopted by the council several weeks ago on the suggestion of City Attorney Richards, which provides that either $1,500,000 or less than half that sum be levied as a floating debt and bearing not more than 3 per cent interest if they take advantage of the act within six months after its passage.

Mr. Richards, in speaking of the matter this morning said that advertisement might be dispensed with at present as the bonds could be sold at par in view of the fact that at maximum rate of interest.

City Attorney Richards remarked this morning that there are several reasons why the legislation is demanded by the city's interests.

Besides changes in the fortified tax law and the bill just referred to, he said, there should be a change in the constitution and recommending such changes is in their opinion the best course.

The matter of changing the place of holding the school board meeting in the Sunday school room was referred to the officers of the school to report at a early meeting.

NEW BUSINESS JOURNAL.

The Head of the Lakes Has Issued Its First Number.

The Head of the Lakes, the new business journal, was first issued today. It is the handsomest trade publication ever issued in Duluth, and starts out with a small class of advertising.

It is the organ of the business men in the city, and it is to be expected that telephone companies have a right-of-way for their poles and wires, and that the public is held to include the streets of cities.

It is contemplated, Mr. Richards said, returning to the proposed bill providing for the funding of the debts, that it may be found that the proposed provisions of the forfeited tax law may stipulate the payment of a portion of so-called floating amounts, would be realized to wipe out the floating debt in part, at least, so bonds could be issued to cover the balance.

Mr. Richards said that the county commissioners will for a year or two at least, give the city the proportion that it pays of the special road fund tax, in view of the present deplorable condition of the maintenance fund.

Klein, being joined in marriage to Daniel Gross, of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Sigismund Weiss, who was a pretty affair, but was quiet, being attended only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lydia Schwartz, of Chicago, and the best man was E. Herzka, of Chicago. The other three cases were taken under advisement because the judges who heard them were not quite satisfied with the circumstances warranting the laying in stepping in and parting the couple who found their marriage ties galling.

There were some applications for divorces where the disruption seemed to have been caused by the circumstances of married life. In the case of Fannie and Isaac Cohen, the marriage had been against Isaac Cohen's mother, who gave her age as 17, said that her husband was 27 years of age and that they were married in October, 1888. Nine days after the ceremony the husband told her that he did not like her and sent her back to her mother. This command she obeyed and was received by her husband, who granted her a divorce.

Judge Cantrall decided that defendant had been guilty of failing to provide for his wife. He pleaded not guilty and was released on his own recognizance.

QUIET AT ST. PAUL

Four Days' Vacation Has Thinned Out Even the Office Seekers.

COMMITTEE PLACES

The Duluth Senators and Representatives Are Likely to Fare Well.

St. Paul, Jan. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is comparatively quiet in the hotel lobbies and around the state houses today. Many of the members have gone out to take a four-days' vacation and even the office seekers, who have been hounding Governor Lind, are thinning out, having either been given satisfactory promises, or informed that the places they sought had already been provided for.

As usual the first bill passed by the legislature was one providing for a fund of $15,000 with which to meet legislative expenses. Before adjourning yesterday the house voted to have the report of the various committees and representatives, some of whom are running a little short of ready cash, paid over to them at once. Quite a number of them remained here a day longer than they otherwise would in order that they might get their respective money, those who could afford to travel. The Duluth members fare better than the average, the greater number, each, from being allowed 260 miles of travel, which at 15 cents a mile, nets them $4. Senator Hawkins, who is from Duluth, is creditable with $38, and consequently will receive $38 more, and consequently will receive $38 more. Representative Neilson of Two Harbors was allowed 416 miles.

Senators Daugherty and Hawkins and Representative Mallory left for home yesterday afternoon and Representatives Pugh and Laddie will go up tonight. Mr. Miller will remain here during the recess, the latter's wife being with him for the winter.

Mr. Miller is reported to have seen since the inauguration looking for his chances for appointment to the position of deputy of inspector at Duluth.

He has been a good engineer, which he has presented to the governor. It is not likely that Governor Lind will name the next superintendent of public instruction, soon. His old correspondent was informed today, however, that it is practically settled that this appointment will be given to Prof. Dr. E. Deneffel.

There has been a very strong fight made against Denefel, it being charged that he was not A. P. C. There was a time when there was reason to believe that the opposition to him would be successful, because it was not considered good politics to advance a man who had been a part of the party to a large element of the voting population of the state. Later, however, Professor Denefel received the endorsement of the Minnesota Catholic Clergy, and it is said that priests gave him their most cordial support, and thus enabled the governor to nominate him.

The government would not only be advantageous to the best interests of the public service, but it would be wise from a political point of view.

With the legislature adjourned to meet Monday night at 8 o'clock, no business will be transacted at that session. The last legislative session, for more than three consecutive days, the recess would have been until Tuesday morning. A few of the members will be on hand to attend roll call for themselves and to exchange for those of their absent colleagues, and then both of houses will promptly adjourn until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Gov. Leedy, Gov. Smith, and Speaker Dare promise that they will announce the standing committee on the houses Tuesday. Both have been very active in giving out information in advance regarding the committee appointments. The Duluth delegation in caucus assembled, agreed among themselves as to who it would be necessary to ask for, and put their request to the speaker, who presented it to the speaker. He now has it under consideration and will probably grant most of what is asked. The committee that will amass the money will be the appointment of George H. Davis as chairman of the judiciary, the post master general, and the speaker of the house.

As in Mr. Davis' first term, and there are many old members who are candidates for this position, Mr. Dare will find it very hard to turn them down for advancement, but his friend, Capt. Frederick Rodgers, to be commodore; Commander Edwin White, to be captain; Lieut. Commander C. C. Conover, to be first lieutenant; Lieut. L. C. Holmer, to be commander; Lieut. Junior Grade A. C. Diefenbach, to be a lieu-tient.

Johnson Company H., Portsmouth, back and part hips; Alice M. Company, H., Portsmouth, neck and back of head; French Simms Company, E., Washington, rib broken; George Newhard, Company M., Circleville, rib broken.

There were twelve others who received severe injuries and many who were more or less bruised. Lack of training of the bands is not the reason given for the accident. The men in the lower bands suffered the most. The extent of the various injuries cannot be told yet, but the medical men are doing all possible for the patients. A number were removed to the various city hospitals owing to the severity of their injuries.

He now has it under consideration and will probably grant most of what is asked. The committee that will amass the money will be the appointment of George H. Davis as chairman of the judiciary, the post master general, and the speaker of the house.

As in Mr. Davis' first term, and there are many old members who are candidates for this position, Mr. Dare will find it very hard to turn them down for advancement, but his friend, Capt. Frederick Rodgers, to be commodore; Commander Edwin White, to be captain; Lieut. Commander C. C. Conover, to be first lieutenant; Lieut. L. C. Holmer, to be commander; Lieut. Junior Grade A. C. Diefenbach, to be a lieu-tient.

Gov. Leedy, Gov. Smith, and Speaker Dare promise that they will announce the standing committee on the houses Tuesday. Both have been very active in giving out information in advance regarding the committee appointments. The Duluth delegation in caucus assembled, agreed among themselves as to who it would be necessary to ask for, and put their request to the speaker, who presented it to the speaker. He now has it under consideration and will probably grant most of what is asked. The committee that will amass the money will be the appointment of George H. WASHINGON, Jan. 6.—The resolution introduced yesterday by Mr. Hoar, calling upon the president, if not in his judgment incompatible with the public interest, to call a special session of the legislature to consider the treaty of Paris, was referred to the Indians and commissioners who had negotiated the treaty of Paris; the correspondence which had passed between him and the department of state and the commissioners, and the reports made by the commissioners either to him or to the department of state, was laid before the senate early in the session today.

Mr. Davis, one of the commissioners and the chairman of the committee, moved that the resolution be referred to that committee.

Mr. Hoar—I object to such a reference of the resolution. It seems to me that the Indians and the commissioners are to be called in to give evidence on the subject.

Mr. Davis—My motion will prevail.

After debate by Mr. Hoar,

Washington, Jan. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Indians have reached the Minnesota members that unless something is done to placate the Indians, there may be most serious trouble and grave differences growing out of the actions of the timber estimators.

The Indians are asking for compensation for the timber cut down on their lands.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS.

The first batch of appointments made by Governor Lind was made public yesterday, and their prompt confirmation by the senate in open session shows that there is not likely to be any friction between that body and the governor.

The appointment of Mr. Ringland as railroad commissioner had been anticipated. He was the fusion candidate for Congress in the Seventh district last fall, but was defeated. Having made a study of railroad freight rates and kindred problems, he is well qualified for the position in which Governor Lind has placed him. Now was the selection of Maj. J. M. Bowler as dairy and food commissioner a surprise. Maj. Bowler was the fusion candidate for lieutenant governor in 1886, and again in 1888. Gen. E. M. Pope of Marquette will be public examiner, and it can be confidently affirmed that the governor could not have made a better choice.

It was erroneously stated in a headline in the Herald yesterday that Martin F. McHale, appointed to be labor commissioner, is an ex-senator. The governor's appointee is a resident of Minneapolis and an organized labor man, and was strongly backed for the position by members of the labor organizations. Louis Nash, of St. Paul, who was also strongly pushed for the office, was himself in favor of Mr. McHale, in case the governor decided the appointment should go to Minneapolis. Mr. McHale is said to be well qualified for the position, and his appointment will be highly satisfactory to all the labor organizations in the state. He is a member of the Stonecutters' Union in Minneapolis and at one time had a place in the office of the Minneapolis building inspector.

SLAVES UNDER OUR FLAG.

The Chicago Record draws attention to the fact that the flag of the United States, that is held up to the oppressed of every land as the emblem of liberty, floats over slaves today. There is no existence in the Hawaiian islands a system of contract labor that is in fact slavery. Ignorant laborers are brought from foreign lands under contract to work on the plantations. If they tire of their task and refuse to work they are sentenced to jail, as for the commission of a crime. These laborers during the period of their contract are as much slaves as the negroes who used to feel the slave-driver's lash on our own Southern plantations.

The correspondent of the Record at Honolulu tells some pathetic tales of forced return to service on the plantations of laborers who had tried to escape. He also tells of considerable numbers of natives of Galicia who are kept in jail or compelled to work on the streets of Honolulu because they refuse to toll as contract laborers on the plantations.

The Hawaiian islands now form a part of the United States. The Stars and Stripes float over them, as the emblem of legal authority and freedom. Wherever that flag floats there should be no slaves. Better far that the flag should come down than that bondage should be permitted under it. The constitution of the United States contains this provision: "Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

These unfortunate laborers of Hawaii, who are forced by the laws of that place to live under a system of slavery, should be aided, says the report, to bring a test case in the United States courts at an early day, to the end that it may be determined whether involuntary servitude can be enforced under the American flag.

THE INDIAN OUTBREAK.

There was one paragraph of Governor Clough's closing message to the legislature that was received with applause, although it was severely criticized in the press at Washington. It was in reference to the Leech Lake Indian outbreak. Governor Clough said:

"In the early part of October, the United States government, after a series of acts and neglects most wrongful to the Indians of Minnesota, by a blunder more criminal in its results than the neglects and act which preceded it, took a small body of troops to Leech Lake in this state. This performance, the climax to a long course of folly and wrong in dealing with the Indians, precipitated bloodshed, and led to the death of a number of brave and noble-hearted men. This in turn came very near causing an outbreak of all the Minnesota Chippewas."

To quiet the fears of the settlers in the northern part of the state and to prevent the possibility of such an uprising, I called upon the general government for more troops than were at the time at the seat of the disturbance. I also called out, on Oct. 7, all the available state troops. This mobilization of troops, state and national, gave confidence to the settlers and prevented, to a great extent, several bands of Indians from joining the hostiles at Leech Lake. The expense incurred by the Indians for the monument, to be erected in memory of the brave and noble-hearted men who died at the battle of the Mississippi, was $10,000.

Those who are engaged in a dispute as to whether the Indians should be spelled "Puerto Rico" or "Porto Rico" might compromise on "Pretty Rock." Those who have seen the island say it is both nice and filthy, like some housekeepers.

A Cincinnati newspaper urges the citizens to say a good word for the city when they get a chance. This is good advice for the people of other cities.

"Look at the Standard Oil company, millions of gallons of petroleum and has it not been a success?"

The governor might have added that the policy pursued by Indian Commissioner Jones is not calculated to aid in restoring confidence among the settlers who live in close proximity to the Indians and who know that the Jones method of dealing with the redskins will encourage them to engage in further outbreaks. Nor will the president's pardon of the eleven Indians sentenced to the Fergus Falls jail increase the security of the settlers. The Indians concluded that Commissioner Jones was afraid of them and would give them anything they asked for the sake of peace and they will now look upon President McKinley in the same light. The result will be that they will feel it is perfectly safe to again defy the government. Clemency will not win the Indians' respect; they look upon it as a sign of weakness. The Indians should be treated fairly and honestly, but when they violate the law and defy the officers of the law they should be punished severely.

THE HOPE OF SPAIN.

While the recent war showed the weakness, corruption and incompetency of the Spanish government, there are able and patriotic Spaniards who believe that the disastrous defeat of their country may prove a blessing in disguise by arousing its people to the determination that the administration of their home government shall be reformed thoroughly. They are confident that following this step, which must necessarily be the first one toward the rehabilitation of Spain will come a quickening of industrial and commercial enterprise that will rapidly repair the ravages of war.

Senor Fredrico Rubio, one of the foremost Liberals leaders in Spain, in a recent publication declares that the record of Spain's government for many years past has been simply shameful. He says that he has traveled extensively in Europe and America, and has found nothing, and that nowhere has he found so frank, so frank and so open a government as the Spanish.

Rubio needs no introduction.

Prize has a Hard Time.

James Prior, who lives near Tower, is having a hard time getting a homestead in his opinion. A number of years ago he had a claim on the land, but it was lost in the section 23-6-47, claiming to be an original settler. Ole O. Svartvold contested his title, and the case went to the court through the interior department. Prior won out and got his claim, but he is still not satisfied, as he thought his troubles were over another contest has been initiated. The Interior department claims that Prior is a resident of Sweden and has been for years and is an employee of the Swedish Iron Works, which never established residence on the land in good time. The case was called for hearing yesterday but was postponed.

Movement in Favor of Retaining Ald. Burg in Fourth.

There is a decided current of feeling in the Fourth ward in favor of continuing Alderman Burg in the council for another term. His friends urge, and which all concede, that he has shown himself faithful, conservative and conscientious and a safe man to "tie to."

A. O. Osborne, a safe man to "tie to," is mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the Seventh ward. Those who are bringing his name forward assert clearly that he would make the strongest candidate of any of the available timber in the Republican ranks.

The withdrawal of Alderman Cochrane of the Eighth, from the council has caused a large number of his erstwhile supporters to look toward R. W. Mars and the latter is prominently mentioned as the successor to Mr. Cochrane's shoes.

PROSPECT IS BRIGHT

Copper Country Cities Are Anxious to Have a Baseball League.

WILL BE ARRANGED

Plan Will Be Carried to Conclusion By the Duluth Managers.

The prospects of having a baseball league of which Duluth will be a member during the coming summer are excellent. The management has been working on the matter for some time, and there seems to be no doubt that it will take practical steps and that a series of first class ball games can be provided for the people of Duluth and of Superior, too, for that city will, of course, be a member of the league.

The plan first proposed was to have a league in which a number of North Dakota and Red River valley towns should be members. That it was found was not easy to arrange, but we can see that the Duluth men interested, and would thus require considerable time and expense. This plan is now abandoned, although there is a possibility that something may occur to reopen it. The league scheme did not fit in with the towns in the Copper country found to be more ready to enter a league.

The plan now under consideration is to have a league of the Duluth team, the Ashland, Marquette and two or three of the copper country towns, probably Hancock, Houghton or Calumet.

THE NORMAL SCHOOLS. Prof Phelps Explains Benefit of Preparatory Departments.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Referring to the governor's recommendation that the so-called preparatory departments in our state normal schools be discontinued, I would like to say that this is needlessly what has been going on for several years. But it is necessary to take a progressive step and to consummate it will require many years. But a small proportion of our teachers graduate, however, among the profession of teaching and consequently do not enter the normal schools. The result is that the branch of education and professions and it will be many years. If ever, the normal school would be necessary to teach the class of students. Again, our common schools must necessarily be left to teach the common people to the best of their ability. In other words, we must do the art of teaching, which is the most important teacher.

The preparatory courses have served a most important purpose. In lifting teachers for the rural schools. One of the best methods of improving the common branches is to send them to the common schools to teach the common people to the best of their ability. In other words, we must do the art of teaching, which is the most important teacher.

OH, MY! HOW SWEET!

"Viking" Sap Maple Syrup is as pure and sweet as a LILY. It is the sap pure and simple from the hearts of the maples in the great Buckeye State, the famous maple country, but GREAT OLD STATEMEN. But we have other sweet things to mention. For example, "VIKING" Flour of which THE HEALTHY of Jan. 2, 1889, in brief says: "No better praise could be given to any flour. 'Viking' Flour nourishes the human system, gives it strength and tone, and, in a word, conduces to the attainment of perfect health and discovered and endorsed by the hygienic press." This flour has a sweet taste for the "VIKING" from the American authority on matters of sanitation and hygiene. Our ad is a sweet one.

In due time she landed at Liverpool, latitude 28° west by the Atlantic Transport company's steamer Mesaba, which arrived on Jan. 4, having reached St. Mihail with her smokestacks gone, boats carried away and decks swept by the waves.

The Mesabi, after standing by the Catania for two hours, came up and her on the morning of Dec. 30, had proceeded for London.

AMBITION OF GOMEZ

Is Said to Desire Union of Cuba and San Domingo.

WANT FREE TRADE

American Association of Porto Rico So Petitions the Senate.

New York, Jan. 6.—A special from Havana says: A colonel in the insurgent army says that Gomez recently sounded the army on his old ambition of uniting Cuba and San Domingo under one government. The why old chief thinks that the United States can offer no objection to this plan, which, if accomplished, would create a state strong enough to absorb Hayti soon. With this done, Gomez believes the foundation would be laid for a republic, which will soon take rank in the Western world second only to the United States. Capt. Gen. Dorst of the Fifth cavalry is critically ill with malarial fever.

ASK FOR FREE TRADE.

Americans in Porto Rico Also Want U. S. Currency.

Washington, Jan. 6.—A petition has been received by the senate from the American Association of Porto Rico asking for the establishment of free trade among the United States and the United States and the abolition of the tariff established by the military authorities, as well as for the retirement of the Porto Rico currency and the adoption of the money of the United States. The petitioners assert that the present tariff discriminates against the interests of American citizens.

GIVES NEW CONFIDENCE.

Marine Review's Comment on the Rescue of the Tampa.

The last issue of the Marine Review of Duluth commented on the release of the steamer Tampa by Capt. Singer's company as follows:

"In the release of the steamer Tampa from Beaver Bay, Capt. W. H. Singer, of Duluth, has given confidence to the shipping interests, and especially the wrecking operations of Lake Superior. The Singer tug business has always been well conducted, and this job on the Tampa, which was one of the best and most efficient, was a success. The right kind of effort being made to release vessels that may meet with difficulties in the head of the lakes. It should lead to the establishment of a successful wrecking business by Capt. Singer."

Lived There For Years.

The crew of Sherman R. Pierce and 30 others, under Stephen Green, is being heard in the United States Land office today. The land is in sections 15 and 23-67-19. It was first claimed under the Homestead Act, but was afterward sought to relinquish this and file a homestead as a settler. Green has lived in that vicinity for many years.

To Be Examined Here.

The civil service examination board at Duluth has been notified that a board will be the examining board for positions in the custodial service of the government at this point. This has hitherto been handled by the department at Washington. The positions included are assistant custodian, joint cated as installing officer and the following were the chiefs-elect who were "raised": E. W. Meinhardt, sachem; P. J. McKeon, senior sagamore; Frank Fleischman, junior sagamore; P. Hasselblad, prophet; N. J. Orr, chief of records; Jay Anderson, trustee. Twelve new factions were adopted, as Red Men and a "dog feast" was appointed. The chiefs-elect concluded the evening's entertainment.

New Officers Installed.

Elizabeth court No. 220, Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, installed its new officers at its regular meeting last evening. The new officers are as follows: D. H. C. R., Mary K. Keane; V. C. R., Ellen Munro; R. S. Margaret Mary J. Martin, trustees; Margaret Langigan, Mary Sullivan, Margaret Marshall; conductors, Nellie Larivie and Edmund McCoy; sentinels, Mary and Sue Stearns; secretary, Rev. Dean Corbett. The year just closed has been very pleasing to officers and members of the court. The court is well organized but still lacks a few members. The new officers are now numbered seventy-five, and five more members are to be initiated Jan. 16.

Examinations of Teachers.

Those in the examinations for teachers in the Duluth schools tomorrow, beginning at 9 o'clock, will be at the High School. It will be in charge of the Board of examiners. The schedule for the day will be: arithmetic, 9 o'clock to 10 o'clock; civil government, 10 to 11; physiology, 11 to 12. The schedule for the afternoon will be as follows: reading and theory, 1 to 2; practice, 1:30 to 2:30; arithmetic, 2:30 to 3:30. A week from tomorrow the examinations will be continued, and the remainder of the subjects will be taken up.

OF GREAT BENEFIT

Traveling Libraries Sent From Here Have Accomplished
Much Good.

MORE ARE DESIRED

Three Needed to Supply Other Towns Anxious to Get Them.

The Free Traveling Library association held an interesting meeting at the public library Thursday evening. There was a good attendance, and the proceedings were attended with considerable enthusiasm. Reports were heard from the cases of books that have been sent out, and it was decided to send out at least three more. The six cases of books that were sent out went to Carlton, Thomson and other small towns in this vicinity where the need of such an institution was felt, and reports from all them indicate that they have been freely used, and that their influence on the communities has been great. It is hardly necessary to explain the good effects of a book club which, if not entirely bookless, is not hampered by the absence of an open library to which the bookless may have access. The traveling library is unique in its success, and its promoters are anxious to extend it as far as it may be possible.

To this end it was decided that three more cases of books should be made up and sent out. There are no lack of places where they are needed, and where there is no doubt they will do a great deal of good. After the first lot of books was made up there was a generous and ready response to the requests for donations, and it took but a short time to get enough for the case. It is hoped that the appeal that the association now makes will meet with as much a response from those for whom it may be required that their funds cannot be devoted to a more worthy or a more effective cause.

The association desire to have a hand in this excellent enterprise, and the books they desire to contribute to the public library, where they will be cared for and made ready to be sent out.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

City Upheld in Case of Ann E. Morey Against Duluth.

St. Paul, Jan. 5.—An attempt to hold the trustees of the Minnesota Savings Bank liable for the loss of the funds of depositors defeated by the state court in one of the decisions given yesterday. Chief Justice Starkart writing the opinion. The suit is brought by W. G. Richards and others, who had assigned the rights to him against the bank and its trustees. There is no difficulty in getting a judgment against the bank, but neither the district court nor the supreme court could make it a personal claim on the trustees. The argument was that the bank was not legally a corporation, and that its trustees were therefore, partners.

The trustee was an old one bought from the Union Savings Bank of Rochester, which had exercised its right to sue. The suit was dismissed by the court until 1880, when it was bought by the St. Paul bank.

Justice Carty agrees with the plaintiffs in the old charge, but believes that it was nevertheless a decision in a partnership. The majority of opinion in the sixteen years despatched did not abolish the old charge.

Frederic Romers' suit to recover from the St. Paul City railway for damage to his property on Ramsey street by the presence of the car barn is likewise dismissed.

And, finally, vs. the City of Duluth a suit that came from a assessment for street improvements. She had a mortgage on the land that was taken for a street, and also on adjoining lots, which were also to be improved. She claims there was an irregularity in the proceedings, and no opportunity was given her to appear and to be heard. The court decided that she has lost the opportunity to be heard, since the charter invites "all persons interested," and that the city had no right to take the mortgage, though that was earlier, since otherwise there would be no way of collecting such assessments at all.

John C. Lyman vs. Gear, Scott & Co., the plaintiff's title to certain lands in St. Paul is upheld. The claim of the defendant is that they attached the interest of one Buzzell in the land, which consisted of an unincorporated town, formerly, where he married an American lady.

W. C. McDonald, a man solicited for his ministrations to McMillan University.

It is regarded as probable that France and Great Britain will reach an agreement on the North Sea question, which will be satisfactory to Great Britain.

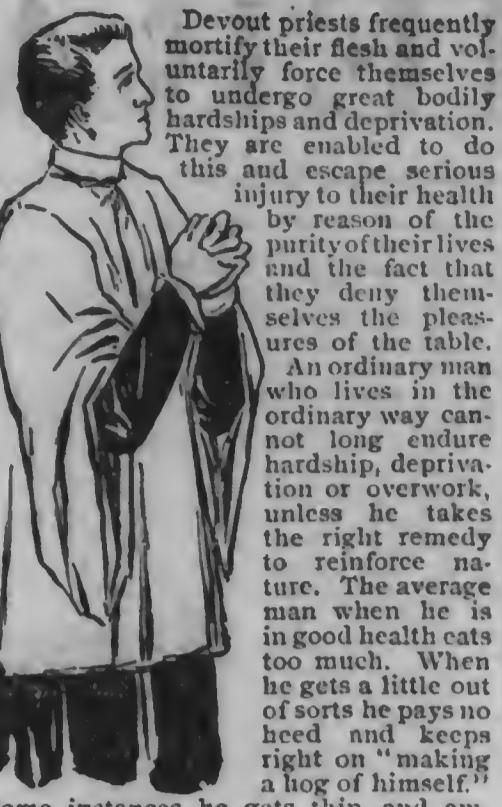

The reply of Lord Salisbury to the proposal of the French government for a disarmament conference of the powers, while it is just and natural, promises little, and asks for an indication of the heads of the proposed conference.

The chamber of commerce of Bordeaux has again presented a memorial to the government, pressing the pressing necessity of opening negotiations for a life insurance. A week after the former came, W. W. Wright left the country and lived in various parts of the country, finally drifting to Freshwater, Colo. He was a graduate of the University of Colorado, and became prominent bearing the name of "King of Freshwater." One morning a man with whom Wright was at his cabin was found shot to pieces in the cabin. Wright assisted in the coroner's

TO CLEAR UP A MURDER.

Probability that an Innocent Man Is Serving Life Sentence.

Gouverneur, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Sheriff George A. Storrs of Utal county, Utah, left Gouverneur, accompanied by Mrs. Jeanie Wright, who was en route to Utah in endeavor to clear up a murder mystery and free, if possible, a man from a life sentence. At the Peck Point ranch, Utah, in 1865, three young men sat down one night in their ranch house. The son of one of the boys, named Haynes, had had trouble with the men and was arrested along with the crime. The bodies of the men were found sunk in Utah lake, and the premises they had occupied looted. Haynes was convicted on a technicality, and was sentenced to be hanged, but a stay was secured and the sentence commuted to life imprisonment. A week after the trial, the two who were left died locally and lived in various parts of the country, finally drifting to Freshwater, Colo. He was a graduate of the University of Colorado, and became prominent bearing the name of "King of Freshwater." One morning a man with whom Wright was at his cabin was found shot to pieces in the cabin. Wright assisted in the coroner's

TO BE REORGANIZED

The Company Has Accepted the Decision of the Supreme Court.

Devout priests frequently identify their feelings and voluntary forgo themselves to undergo great bodily hardships and deprivation. They are entitled to do this to escape serious injury to their health by reason of the purity of their lives. An ordinary man who lives in the ordinary way can hardly bear hardship, deprivation or overwork, unless he takes the means to reinforce nature. The average man when he is healthy and well fed can stand much. When he gets a little out of sorts he pays no attention to it, but is right on "making a log of himself."

In some instances he is thin and emaciated. In others he gets easily corpulent, and weighted down with flabby fat. The first instance is a candidate for dyspepsia and neuralgia, particularly if the heart fails. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enables the average man to undergo a great deal of hardship, depravation or overwork in spite of the life he leads. It allows food to be properly assimilated, it builds firm bones but does not make coarse people more fat, it cures dyspepsia, nervous troubles, kidney disease and 95 percent of all cases of consumption. It prevents weakness in any organ of the body.

William Waldo Astor's Pall Mall Gazette says: "The young man with the great sense to buy the best and his position seriously and not rest content with the inferior imitations, with having taken the trouble to be born. In the age we live in it is eminently desirable to be well educated, and wealth should throw the influence of their position and their personality into the scale of merit."

Takes Himself Seriously.

The dream of George M. Pullman's life has been shattered. The fenced-in model town of Pullman is to become a member of the government. The office, which is only a stepping stone, is still alive, but it will occasionally have to answer a question or two from the lords. The appointment is now referred to the board of the Conservative cause. He is an indefatigable worker, and has been a hardy warden without avail. The income from the estate is nearly $250,000 a year.

The Drunkenness in Glasgow.

The Hogmany, or New Year's eve festivities, celebrated at Glasgow were marked by a number of cases of drunkenness in the streets seen even in Glasgow.

On account of the scenes one account says: "I would need the pen of a poet to describe the scenes of drunkenness. The most astounding feature of the debauchery was the appalling number of young girls who were drunk."

Lady Henry Somerset, W. T. Stead and other friends and admirers of the late Mr. H. H. Aspinwall, the author of 'Children of the Poor,' 'Changer for Schools,' 'The Poor of the Poor,' 'The Poor of the Rich,' have formed a committee to popularize his memory by raising a fund to be distributed among the poor.

W. T. Stead, who was a member of the committee, said: "The money will be given to the employees to purchase the homes which they now occupy."

MATTHEW QUAY'S VICTORY.

Senator Matt Quay of Pennsylvania claims with a great show of confidence that he will be re-elected by the Pennsylvania legislature to a second term in the Senate. His confidence seems well founded, in view of the showing that he made at the Republican caucus this week. It is true that some of the Republican members stayed away and that he did not get enough votes to constitute a majority of the legislature, but he and his friends claim that the additional votes needed will be secured. They are probably correct. Quay was opposed by the best element of his party in Pennsylvania at the primaries, and those who fought him were at one time after the nominations confident that he had beaten him.

It is probably true that a majority of the Republican members of the legislature were nominally anti-Quay men at the time of their election, but many of them have since been gathered in by that wily political boss since they were elected. The result of the caucus is not a surprise to those who are acquainted with Pennsylvania politics. In my state has been run over good to suit its feelings on the last swing. It is common knowledge that for more than twenty years, and they were succeeded by Quay, who for twelve years past has been an even more absolute and arbitrary boss than ever Cameron was. When he was first elected to the senate he was under an accusation of having defrauded the state treasury. He will be elected for a third term with an indictment for complicity in the wrecking of a bank hanging over him. As the Atlanta Journal says, it seems to make no difference what Quay does. His followers apparently grow more devoted and enthusiastic with every attack that is made upon his character. The accumulation of evidence that he is a disreputable man, if not a criminal, has been going on for years, and yet we see his party's representatives by an overwhelming vote calling him to serve a third term in the Senate. Such an instance is without parallel in the history of American politics. It proves that Quay possesses organizing power of high degree, but it proves just as conclusively that there is a very low tone in the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

How much longer Quay will continue to be the dominant factor in Pennsylvania politics cannot be predicted. His conviction of the crime with which he is now charged would transfer him from the senate to the penitentiary, but the wiles by which he has held his political power under such adverse circumstances will probably avail to acquit him in court, no matter what the evidence against him may be. Quay will rule as long as the Republican party in Pennsylvania continues on its present mortal plane. A majority of Pennsylvania Republicans have shown time and again that Quay is worth after their own heads and will their hearts and consciences change they will continue to worship Quay and give him whatever he may ask for. His victory at this time with a serious charge hanging over his head shows that there must be a radical change in the moral character of Pennsylvania Republicans before he can be overthrown as a political boss.

A GROSS INJUSTICE.

The Herald presents in another column today some further arguments in favor of the gross earnings tax paid by the railroads to the state being divided among the various counties in proportion to the value of the railroad property within their boundaries. The present system is manifestly unjust to the cities and counties that contain large quantities of railroad property and are deprived of any share of the taxes paid by that property, with the result that an excessively heavy burden is thrown upon the other taxpayers. There is no property which is a greater cause of expense to the municipality than is the railroad property and yet the municipality receives absolutely nothing for it. It cannot be seriously contended that this is a fair arrangement—that it is equal taxation—because the counties with large amounts of railroad property are taxed more heavily than those with little of that class of property.

The state auditor's annual report says that ultimately the system of gross earnings taxes will provide enough revenue to run the state and do away with the necessity of a general state tax. At first glance this seems a very good thing, but on closer investigation it will be found that it will be merely a more aggravated form of the existing injustice. If no general state tax was collected the counties with little or no railroad property would contribute practically nothing to the state treasury, while the counties and cities containing valuable railroad terminals would furnish nearly all the state's revenue and their property-owners would be taxed to an excessive point for county and local purposes because the railroad property was exempt from assessment.

An instance of the injustice of the present system is found in the case of Proctorknott, a railroad town. It contains the roundhouse shop of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern.

The result is that nearly all the property in the town, being railroad property, is exempt from taxation for county, village or school purposes. The little property not owned by the railroads is taxed to the point of confiscation.

IMPORTANT RULING.

Decision of Supreme Court
In Morey Case Means Much to the City.

In the case of Anna E. Morey vs. the city of Duluth, notice of a decision in which in the city's favor was this morning received by City Attorney Richards, the supreme court has decided that the city assessment is a paramount and prior lien to a mortgage made anterior to the levy of the assessments, and that the judgment on the assessment binds the mortgagee. The assessments involved in the case amounted to about $4000. This is the third largest sum that has ever been imposed on what the assessments in question were levied, a tract in the vicinity of Thirty-fifth avenue east and French street, originally containing about ten acres. The city originally acquired a 60-foot strip through the property by quiet claim deed for a street. The mortgagee brought an action to foreclose his right in the city and the vacate the street, in which the tracks of the Lakeside street railway line had been laid. The action failed because the mortgagee served with notice. Then the mortgagee brought an action to compel the city to redeem from the mortgage or vacate. It was held that the city could not be forced to redeem the holden trustee that it had the right to redeem the strip taken for the street alone. Prior to the sale the city condemned the strip for the street, retaining it for the final consideration of $1 and confirming its right of possession, and paid no attention to the sale. That action was concluded with the plaintiff's attorney claiming that the mortgage lien was superior to the assessments.

Mr. Richards is elated at the victory, as he has long and greatly desired the city. Had the plaintiff's only hope resulted in a large loss to the city, but he has not yet been repaid. He has specified that he expects some improvements in the future.

Elizabeth Weathers Asks That She
Be Tried Elsewhere.

Elizabeth Weathers, the colored woman, who was convicted of assault in the first degree upon Police Officer McLeaman at the police station, has asked that she be tried elsewhere.

In the Fifth Walter Thompson is listed as the defendant in the nomination.

A. H. Williams is announced as a candidate.

Mr. Williams has indicated that he will be elected for office. He is a fusionist.

S. F. Smith has indicated that he will be elected for office.

In the Second ward Charles A. McPherrin, ex-assistant county attorney, is spoken of as a Republican possibility, but Alderman Fischer seems to have the lead.

In the Third and Fourth wards, the conditions seem to be about the same as during the past three of four days, the Fusion Alderman Burg looks up in the lead in favor.

In the Fifth Walter Thompson is listed as the defendant in the nomination.

A. H. Williams is announced as a candidate.

Mr. Williams has indicated that he will be elected for office. He is a fusionist.

S. F. Smith has indicated that he will be elected for office.

In the Sixth there are three rivals for the fusion nomination, Frank Schaffer, Alderman Duran and F. W. Hill. The results are apparently in favor of Schaffer.

In the Seventh, matters are still in question as to the outcome of the election.

Fifth precinct, as to whether they will run a candidate from that precinct or join in requesting Alderman Richardson to be a candidate.

In favor of E. F. Alford as a Republican.

The Barnes people prefer to see that the other two remain in the race.

In the Eighth matters are exceedingly mixed. When Alderman Cochran writes to the friends of R. W. Mars with a request to run him, he will be through Monday, and there may be enough for their supporters to keep them after that time.

The tenth order to make the call Treasurer Whipple has agreed to consider the county's accounts slightly, but the overdraw will be made up shortly, while by the end of the month he says the county is considerably in arrears.

These orders are a very good way to have, as a great many local business men are in a position to meet them if they are issued, if the need money, have no difficulty in disposing of them to investors at par or a very slight discount.

The interest upon these orders will be paid and the saving resulting from this will be considerable.

The orders that are called in are set for $12,000 in each fund. When they are in the funds will not be cleared of their overdrafts, but it is a long step in that direction.

Assignee is Discharged.

Judge Carr this morning in a district court made an order discharging the Duluth Trust company as assignee of the estate of J. E. Power, who formerly ran dry goods store here.

The assignee has paid up the estate and distributed all of the money, except three small amounts on the second division, to the creditors entitled thereto.

The assignee is to hold this money until it is claimed. The names and amounts are as follows: Nellie Signature, 46 cents; Sarah Forster, $3.34; Annie Johnson, 45 cents.

OPTION TRADING

First Public Trade Made In Corn Options Recorded on Duluth Board.

TEN THOUSAND LOT

Business Is Expected to Assume Large Proportions
in the Near Future.

Today the first public trade in corn options ever made on the Duluth board of trade was recorded. It was 10,000 bushels of May corn at 36¢ cents. Chicago May corn at the moment of the trade was quoted at 36¢ cents. The distinction of making this trade belongs to Thomas Gibson and F. E. Lindahl.

The directors of the board of trade have not yet established a contract grade, but in this case, and from this time on, it is understood that No. 3 yellow will be the standard grade.

The Chicago contract grade is No. 2 corn. Last spring No. 3 yellow sold in store at a premium of 1/4 to 2 cents over Chicago.

The receipts of corn here are running now from 40 to 50 cars every day.

There is at present in store about 1,500,000 bushels of old corn, and 1,000,000 of wheat.

With the exception of a few bushels more, all corn is old, so that purchases here on a large scale would get a regular article of corn for the buyer. Receivers look for the bushels more to come in here by May.

This, it should be understood, is the first public trade in corn options made in the world. There will be a great deal of trading, however, between dealers and shippers, and likely this has grown to such values as to make it necessary to change the market and have the price quoted regularly as the wheat options are.

It is believed that an active option market will be created.

IRON AND IRON ORE

Nearly All the Mines Which Shipped Last Season
Working Full Forces.

EXCEPT ON MESABA

Wages Nearly Up to Old Standard and Work For All Applying.

Ishpeming, Mich., Jan. 7.—(Special to The Herald.)—As the times are best with little history is making, it may be inferred that matters are in a satisfactory shape. The Lake Superior iron ore trade is very little of importance at the mines which shipped last season are working full forces, or nearly so, excepting those on the Mesaba range which are light. The advance in production and ultimate collapse which in just about two years has brought us into iniquity in the lumber game is a wise trust which known to him at a time when the dealers had not yet produced and the flotation of as many more new properties.

The steady advance in copper in the past several years from the time it was first brought into the market by the miners, which could not be profitably worked, has been the result of a great deal of careful management, and some it will be the next to rise.

Arenal, Iba, Royston, Boston & Monticello, and the like, have given stocks in the deal. Reference to the foregoing table will show the phenomenal advances.

The price of its commanding property, which is the base from which producers favor a 15 or 20 cent advance, and an even few more cents should be added. An advance of 25 cents on Bessemer ore would afford much relief to mine-owners, miners and owners of lumber-crafts.

To secure a proportionate advance is doubtful and a considerable differential between the cost of production of Bessemer Bessemer in case the mines of that range are included in the unionization on April 20 next.

The recent purchase of the Norman mine by the Minnesota Iron company by the Oliver Mining company is an indication of the desire for every man who wants it, the big iron mining companies to afford much relief to mine-owners, miners and owners of lumber-crafts.

There is every reason to believe that it is "regularman's" agreement to advance freight charges, leaving the balance to be divided between operating expenses and miners' share.

The advance of 25 cents seems very reasonable and fair to all concerned, and is sufficient to suffice to entitle the promising export business in iron and steel to a large amount of additional profits.

Should the miners and operators be able to make new entries on the right side of their ledgers to start in some of the new ventures.

THE GREAT DEMAND.

Year Begins With the Kind of Business Demands That Count.

New York, Jan. 7.—R. G. Dunn's weekly review of trade says:

The year begins with the kind of business demands that count. For months there has been a rising demand for finished products bearing to advance prices in the iron and steel industry. Bessemer have advanced $2 per ton, angles, $1, bars $1 and plates are strong with an Australian order for 32,000 tons refused at Chicago because the works were not up to standard. Many thousand cars are covered by orders at Pittsburg, 10,000 tons bars are taken for structural works at Chicago, and 10,000 tons for the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The Midland Railway company of England has ordered twenty locomotives from the British Locomotive company, and other home and foreign orders are reported. The demand has never been greater at the beginning of the year than it is now.

The woolen manufacture has a similar embarrassment. While quotations for wool by Coates Bros. Philadelphia averaged 25 cents against 20 cents year ago, the market is gradually yielding, because the people appreciate the magnitude of the volume of stock on hand.

The country is on the up grade, and the men who expect it to take a downward road have yet some time to live.

Like a people near the source of a stream which always follows a large and rapid course of recovery, and eventually confluences in the larger rivers, and the foreign trade by no means forbids the expectation that it will rival that of 1887 for several years.

It is a remarkable sight to see a large amount of bullion of a country, and gold exports may at any time begin.

Failure for the week ended last year in the U.S. was against 22 last year, and 21 in Canada against 32 last year.

Bradstreet's says:

The situation is one of quiet, sustained strength, in wholesale and distributive trade annual inventories have exceeded actual consumption, and the stocks of many of the seasonal articles are of only seasonal value.

Business failures are exceptionally small for the opening week of the year, numbering only 227, while in 1888 218 failed.

DAILY WORK.

Work Which Can Be Inspected
Personally is Always Better Performed.

It's the daily work of the little workshops right here in Duluth.
Lifting burdens from helpless backs.
Bringing sunshine to many a home.
It's deeds that count.

That brings the never-ceasing sounds of praise.

troubled with kidney complaint. For the past two or three years my husband had a most uncomfortable condition and was constantly troubled with it. In the morning rose tired and unrefreshed.
I was also bothered a great deal with nervousness. The kidney pills were irregular in shape, and deposited a sediment. I wanted to know if they were good, and the doctor said, 'They are good.' I then took them and found them to be perfectly good. They have given me relief, and now I am in full health again."

TALK OF THE SPORTS

Curling has been active this week from last Monday, when Duluth scratched out to the Anderson medal contest up to last night, when Superior came over and played just for fun. The Monday contest was a narrow one, Duluth won the medal fairly, but only after a hard fight. Three out of four games were lost by narrow margins, and the difference was won by a large enough difference to make them make up for the three losses. The medal, which is a very handsome thing, is to be played for annually, and it will doubtless prove a source of lots of sport in coming seasons.

The Burrows medal contest has narrowed down to Morrison and Bradley's rinks, and they are to play off the finale.

A surprise to the members of the Central Gun club this week was the appearance of that club having tried for a long time to get back into the shooting line, and at the week's shoot Dixie Putney, Superior, Andy Nichols, and others got off with the best prizes. It is said that it was more of a surprise to the Superior club than it was to the Duluth club.

The publication of the first minutes of the American turf congress at the Louisville meeting met with the following announcement: "The committee met at the rooms of the Louisville Jockey Club, the following are the results of their deliberations: Dead James T. Robinson, Kentucky association; Lexington Jockey Club; James Franklin and G. W. Darden, Jockey Club, Washington Park, Chicago, R. S. Montomery, Memphis Jockey Club; Charles O. H. Hunt, St. Louis and West, A. Bradford, of Kentucky, Col. M. L. Smith, of the New York Jockey Club, and the present Cleveland club is transferred to the Western League."

An early horse on Tuesday morning, Dec. 27, Andrew Allen Bonner died of pneumonia, at his residence 12 North 2nd, aged 50. He was the son of Robert Bonner, and was widely known here, had excellent qualities of mind and heart, which he used in his business, brought him close touch with him, and his death moved all sorts to sympathize with him. His last rest, when he lay to begin to learn the art of horsemanship, and as the horses he rode were all dead, he was constantly before him in the magnificent stable of his father, he would have been a great man if he had made rapid progress. He had good hands, was an excellent judge of pace and could drive a horse with a whip, but professed at 16, before he had a breeding establishment, so many bright spirits pledged to be reform should have fallen by the way.
